Sydney Harbour

As Australia's largest city, Sydney is big and bustling, but its distinct precincts and great transport system make it easy and fun to explore.

The hub of Circular Quay is the focal point of the city. A launch pad for many harbour adventures, you'll find cruise operators and ferries coming and going all day long and massive cruise ships docking here too. Next to this hive of activity is The Rocks – a compact historic quarter full of converted warehouses and cobblestone lanes. Within walking distance are the famous Sydney icons – the Sydney Harbour Bridge and the Sydney Opera House, as well as boutiques, restaurants and historic pubs.

The city centre is the commercial heart of Sydney. Clusters of modern skyscrapers look down on some of the best shopping arcades, malls and dining venues, as well as museums, galleries and lush green parks.

Fronting the harbour on the CBD's west side is the waterfront playground of Darling Harbour. At any hour the area buzzes with dining, nightlife, entertainment, family attractions and shopping. Make use of the modern light rail system that wraps around Darling Harbour with ease.

Just south, discover the inner city hubs of Chinatown, Haymarket, Ultimo and Chippendale. These colourful and exciting precincts offer a mix of cuisines, bargain shops, markets and the Central railway station.

Wherever you choose to stay in Sydney city, you'll have easy access to all of the city's highlights.

The Rocks & Circular Quay

Circular Quay

It's where you'll find two of Sydney's biggest icons, but there's more to The Rocks and Circular Quay district than just the Sydney Harbour Bridge and Opera House. Great dining, galleries and museums, boutiques and speciality shops are other worthy drawcards.

The Rocks is Sydney's historic old town quarter, bursting with a colourful history dating back to convict days. It's a maze of sandstone lanes and courtyards, early 19th century warehouses and terraces just waiting to be explored. Nearby Circular Quay is the doorway to Sydney Harbour and all that comes with it. The Quay is a bustling place with ferries leaving every few minutes to Manly, Watsons Bay, Mosman or Taronga Zoo.

Get your fix of shopping at the weekend Rocks Markets or culture at the Museum of Contemporary Art. Walk the harbour foreshore or take a guided walk to learn the secrets of a colourful convict past. Find some of Sydney's oldest pubs like the Fortune of War, Hero of Waterloo, Lord Nelson and the Orient, or discover Sydney's taste for fine dining at Rockpool or Sepia. Choose to stay in a fully restored Heritage Listed building or live it up in five star luxury.

When the sun starts to go down, you'll be spoilt for choice – climb the Harbour Bridge and watch from above, take to the water on a harbour cruise or take in a show at the Opera House.

On Australia's easternmost point where the sun first touches the land, a bespoke resort has been formed almost from the elements themselves. Opened in 2016, Elements of Byron has turned heads with its nature first approach to design. The 50 acre property encompasses two kilometres of absolute beach frontage on Belongil Beach, with creek, lake, ponds, 13 acres of littoral rainforest and abundant wildlife.

Guests will experience an unforgettable welcome, passing water and fire elements into the contoured main pavilion, whose curved roof symbolises the sand dunes along the beach front. Three separate pavilions make up the central resort and leisure facilities, boasting a signature restaurant and lobby bar, poolside bar and kiosk, gymnasium and five suite garden spa. Weaving throughout is a luxurious infinity lagoon pool precinct with a communal sunken fire pit. Feminine, organic materials and forms have been employed to invoke relaxation and connection to the earth.

The 94 freestanding villas pay reverence to the four landscape ecologies present on the site - rainforest, dunal, eucalypt and wetland. Specific native landscaping, furnishings and colour palettes reflect the ecology or landscape in which each particular villa sits.

The experience is authentic barefoot Byron Bay.

Visit the scenic North Coast of New South Wales where you will discover a hinterland of lush river valleys and a coastline of sparkling beaches that are accessible from the legendary Pacific Coast touring route.

Coffs Harbour has some of the best climate in Australia. Throw in swimming and surf beaches, a lush hinterland, playful whales and dolphins, fishing, golf courses and family attractions, it's no wonder Coffs Harbour is the pick of beachside holiday destinations. Kids will love a stopover at the Big Banana and a visit to the Porpoise. Nature lovers will enjoy a visit to nearby World Heritage Listed Dorrigo National Park and the North Coast Botanic Garden in town. Coffs Harbour offers up a great selection of dining options that make the most of the seaside location. Top off the day in the sun with sensational fish and chips by the beach.

Further south the coastal town of Port Stephens provides a full itinerary of outdoor fun. Enjoy the calm waters of Nelson Bay, perfect for a morning kayak. Or mix it up in the surf breaks of Stockton, One Mile and Samurai. The resident dolphins can be seen playing in the bay.

Two hours north of Sydney, Newcastle combines the best of the city and the coast. There's a lot happening from the revolving exhibitions of the town's galleries, to a stack of local events. Look out for passing whales between May and November. Take the kids to Blackbutt Reserve for an Australian wildlife experience where they can pat a koala and feed a kangaroo.

Our Favourites

Relax on one of Lord Howe's many beaches

Bird watching is a must with over 14 species of sea birds nesting

Spend a day snorkelling off the beach in the calm waters of The Lagoon

Hand feed metre long King Fish at Neds Beach

Take a short boat ride to experience some of the Pacific's best dive sites

Enjoy a scenic walk on one of the many walking trails

It's another world on Lord Howe Island. A place where cycling is the main form of transport and rugged volcanic peaks contrast with lush forests and serene lagoons. They go to great lengths to make sure Lord Howe stays so flawless. Less than 300 people live here and visitors are limited to 400, so you know you'll have plenty of room to enjoy yourself. No crowded beaches here, just scenic walking trails through palm forests, incredible views from cliff top outlooks, and a refreshing drink waiting for you as you gaze across the sea to the sunset at the end of the day. All this within two hours flight of Sydney or Brisbane.

This is the kind of place you'll want to come back to again and again. Calm ocean surfaces are a dream to explore in a canoe. Take a dip in the surf off Blinky Beach or simply float in The Lagoon. For the adventurous, there are challenging hikes to tackle or more leisurely walks under forest canopies. Some of the Pacific's best dive sites are a short boat ride away. But there's plenty to see just by wading in off the beach with your snorkel. At Ned's Beach, you can feed fish up to a metre long, or try catching one offshore from one of the local sports fishing boats. The island is home to unique and rare flora and fauna. It's a birdwatcher's paradise, with more than a dozen species of sea birds coming here to breed.

If we have to change any part of your booking for reasons beyond our control, for example, an Accommodation Supplier overbooks accommodation, or if there is an increase in taxes or Supplier charges, we will notify you. If any such changes result in your holiday costing more or otherwise being materially different from that originally booked, you may cancel the booking and we will refund any monies already paid less any charges levied by Suppliers.
